

The unfairly charged food tax is hurting and killing all restaurants in CT. Especially during the pandemic, state government didn't do much to help small business/restaurants, in stead collecting more tax and raised the minimum wage, which made restaurants close one after another. As restaurant owner, I know how bad these policies are first hand. We are thinking closing down our 30+ business and move to other state too!

Daniel Wan
Westport